Welcome

Hi, my name is Kean and I am the founder of Vibrational Numerology which will guide your life and those you love and advise with purpose.

Vibrational Numerology is a 21st Century upgrade on Numerology. It will guide your life as accurately as any modality in the world, because it is based on the precision of mathematics, to provide a 0+9 number to match the vibration of words, names, even your soul.

In this PDF, you will learn how to put the numbers from your date of birth into your own Life Matrix which is a road map for your life. The Matrix will start to help you see your strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges; as well as work, words, names, and ways to become more empowered in all your relationships/life.

Would you like to have the most accurate map for guiding your life?

The language of the 21st Century will be increasingly be about being conscious of energy, measured in vibration. Understanding the vibration of something will help humans better in relationship with others. When you match the vibration of something you want to connect with, like money, health, or another person. You increase your connection and flow with it, to allow yourself to have more of it. Vibrational Numerology allows you to discover your soul vibration, so you can live life by greater design.

Vibrational Numerology is a modality that fully acknowledges 2 original energies, The Nothing (0) and The Everything (1). Chaos and Order, The Divine Feminine (0) and Divine Masculine (1). All life exists between both. You will learn to understand that 0 + 1 create and form the world we live in. No other modality, in my knowledge, invites you to actively consider both original energies like Vibrational Numerology does.

Vibrational Numerology will teach you the power of everything from names, words, times, and numbers to empower your relationships and life. When you harness the power of vibration in your thoughts, words, and deeds, you will determine your life experience. Vibration is in every letter, word, and number. They encode the names you give your children. And the words you use to parent them daily.

Vibrational Numerology will help you discover:

- ✓ The importance of the day you were born
- ✓ Your life path number

- ✓ The power of words and your name to empower your life
- ✓ The best name to call yourself
- ✓ Your soul urge number
- ✓ Your ego number
- ✓ Your combined number that shows the soul's purpose on earth
- ✓ The soul's actual vibration
- ✓ The ego's actual vibration
- ✓ The combined vibration which shows the soul's task on Earth.

Introducing the Life Matrix

The Life Matrix was formed after 1000s of words being measured and more than 50 earlier prototypes. All focused-on noticing for the 1st time, that each number has its own identity, character, spirit, and effect on our life.

Many modalities, like the philosophy, psychology and astrology were consulted to ensure the Matrix's 90% plus accuracy in guiding your life. The Matrix is a road map for your whole life, that summarizes all Vibration Numerology into 18 positive words, 6 negative words and 2 of the many dualities that show you the lessons of each number. The larger character of each number will be fully covered in the Numbers Book 1 - The Power of Numbers.

The Life Matrix represents the numbers 1 to 9 in a grid with the top 3 numbers (3-6-9) being the Thought Plane, the middle 3 numbers (2-5-8) the Sense Plane and the Bottom 3 (1-4-7) the Feeling Plane which matches human psychology perfectly. Numbers are Soul.

The Life Matrix is a quick guide to sharing:

- ✓ Your Strengths - the 8 numbers you have in your birth date.

- ✓ Your Learnings or Old Strengths - numbers you have not got in your birth date.
- ✓ Arrow of Strength - 3 numbers in a row, in any direction.
- ✓ Arrow of Learning or Old Strengths - 3 numbers missing in a line.
- ✓ Square of Strength - 4 numbers in a square.
- ✓ Square of Learning or Old Strengths - 4 numbers missing in a square.

Each Matrix has a pattern and a message

In the Life Matrix that follows, I will provide you with step by step instructions on creating your own chart using your birth date. There is a blank template at the end of this PDF for you to use if you wish.

LIFE MATRIX

How to create your Life Matrix

Step 1

Print out the blank template included at the end of this PDF or create a 3 x 3 grid, putting a 1 in the lower left box, 2 above it, and 3 above that. In the next column, 4 to 6 going up the middle column and then 7 to 9 in the final column from the bottom up.

Step 2

Write each of the numbers from your Date of Birth (DOB) into the grid/matrix. So, if you are born on the 12/09/1987, you would put a number 1 in the 1 box of the Matrix, a 2 in the 2 box, a 09 in the 9 box, another 1 in the 1 box, another 9 in the 9 box, and 8 in the 8 box and a 7 in the 7 box. Zeros are gifts that amplify the number in the box and go in the same number as the number its next to, hence 09 being placed in the 9 box, in the example above. With this DOB the 9 is the only number to have one zero.

3	6	099
11	4	7

Step 3

As you can see on the Life Matrix is a Psychological Map divided up into three horizontal planes the Thought Plane, the Sense Plane, and the Feeling Plane.

The numbers 3-6-9 form the Thought Plane. If you have all three numbers across this plane, you have good Intellectual Intelligence (IQ) and Metaphysical Intelligence (MQ), which is awareness/thoughtfulness.

The numbers 2-5-8 form the Sense Plane. If you have all three numbers across this plane your energy sense is strong and you have good Emotional Intelligence (EQ) and Spiritual Intelligence (SQ), which is the ability to be and come from outside stuck emotion in the spiritual plane.

The numbers 1-4-7 form the Feeling Plane. If you have all three numbers across this plane, you have good Feeling Intelligence (FQ) and awareness of Soul Intelligence (Soul Q), which is the part of you that uses the body and makes it work. The Body is an Avatar/Car.

Step 4

The Life Matrix has 16 Arrows, 8 Positive, 8 Negative.

You have a positive arrow when you have 3 numbers in a row. This is a good thing and view it as a strength.

You have a negative arrow when you have three numbers in a row missing. View negative arrows as challenges for this life, or areas of life you have dealt, with and do not need to focus on this life.
